

The Little Chair That Saved a Place

01

The chair by the wall

The little yellow chair stood beside the classroom wall. The red chair held a coat. The blue chair held a child painting stars. A stack of paper lay on the table. “I could hold something, too,” thought the yellow chair.

